BUSINESS VEHICLE INSTRUCTIONS

Business Mileage section MUST be completed for every vehicle that is used for business. Actual expenses are NOT required if you are using the government's "standard mileage rate." However, they are generally required if you are using the actual expense method, or if you used the actual method the first year the vehicle was placed in service. If this is the first year of business use for the vehicle, provide a copy of the purchase or lease contract.

DO NOT complete this section or the Business Vehicle Expense section if your vehicle is used only for commuting to and from work and for personal travel.		Vehicle 1 <input type="checkbox"/> You <input type="checkbox"/> Spouse	Vehicle 2 <input type="checkbox"/> You <input type="checkbox"/> Spouse

BUSINESS EXPENSE INSTRUCTIONS

Business expense deductions must be based on a log and/or other receipts and records. The combination of records should document: the business purpose, date and time, place and amount. For business meals and entertainment, you must also document that (1) you discussed business during the meal, or (2) you had a substantial bona fide business discussion or activity before or after the meal/entertainment, or (3) you ate alone while out-of-town. You must also record the name and business relationship of each person entertained. Gifts are limited to $25 per person per year. You may not deduct these expenses unless documented.

"OFFICE-IN-HOME" EXPENSES

To qualify, an "office in the home" must be used exclusively and on a regular basis (a) as your principal place of business, or (b) by patients, clients, or customers in meeting and dealing with you in a normal course of business. Beginning in 1990, a home office will qualify as your principal place of business if: 1) You use it exclusively and regularly for the administrative or management activities of your trade or business, and 2) You have no other fixed location where you conduct substantial administrative or management activities of your trade or business, if you are an employee, the home office use must also be for the convenience of the employer.
